“For this work I have chosen three completely different experiences for players and nationalities...”

Today we reached the talented young filmmaker Dorothy Of Nicolantonio, these days busy with his short film. A project that promises to get right to the heart of the people and win over the public. “Who's the Beast”, this is the evocative name of the short film, It is a compelling story, a thriller that takes its cue from chronicles really happened. A meticulous work and "refined" from a technical point of view, what led with passion by the director-producer Diletta, that with determination and preparation has created this work before . The presentation is scheduled for 31 October to film "Caravaggio", ai Parioli. Un cast stellare per “Who's the Beast”, it also records the participation of well-known Italian actor Michele Morrone, Swiss actress Lizzy Joline and actress Priscilla Muscat.

Tell me about your project

Who's the Beast is a thriller short film 14 minutes, made in the English language. I managed to achieve it thanks to all the people who have embraced the project, from Mark Melville, and Mauro Bragagnini who kindly allowed us to shoot in its center canine , in a turn of the century house where the story takes place.

How did the idea?

The idea was born by chance, I met Massimo Zerboni (Czechoslovakian wolf dog breeding Lupimax), which with its "actors" on all fours made "Siberian Education" by Gabriele Salvatores, and his Usha took part in the drama "One step from heaven". I immediately fell in love with these beautiful creatures and being passionate about horror I wrote a subject that would include them, trying to come up with their proud and grateful heart.

Your role in the short film?

I'm the director, producer and wrote the subject (smiles ed)

You can talk about your fellow adventurers?

For this work I have chosen three completely different experiences for players and nationalities. Lizzy Joline a young Swiss actress who plays Claudia. Michele Morrone starred in "Sirens" a series that will be released soon on Raidue, in the role of Peter. Priscilla Muscat in the role of Kim.

What can you reveal?

Nothing!!! (smiles ed)

From'm curious, about the history?

All right, It is a totally fabricated story but is inspired by the chronicles really happened. In short tells the story of a young and naive girl with a pretext is attracted in a very dangerous game.

Do you remember a funny anecdote?

The visual effects supervisor Mary Samele, He could not make up the wolves with fake blood, because it was so good I licked all the time. intrigued, we also tasted fake blood (smiles ed)

How did your passion for this extraordinary art?

Sai, My father is a painter of contemporary art, it was he who has always given me the importance of art in all its forms.

Where will we see you in the future?

At the film Caravaggio in Parioli 31 October (smiles ed). Do not miss.
